

Areti LLP is a modern accounting and consulting firm located in the heart of Vancouver's historic Yaletown. Our mission is to help entrepreneurs define what success means to them and help them achieve that success. We do that by being curious - asking questions, seeking to understand, and taking a genuine interest in our clients.

We are currently seeking a Staff Accountant to join our driven team.

Is this you?

You selected accounting, not because of the number-crunching but because you are a critical thinker who loves challenges. You can put yourself in your clients' shoes and take pride in getting the job done right.

What you'll love about your experience at Areti

- Our people thrive on being engaged, curious, collaborative, and ambitious (for both themselves and our clients).
- Our office is in a funky brick building in Yaletown, right next to the Canada Line.
- We have effective staff meetings and fun activities to open our communication channels and foster teamwork.
- We are passionate about mentorship and the growth and development of our employees.
- We all know tax season is grind-time wherever you are. Still, at Areti, you can proudly say you are a part of a unique culture different from any other firm.

How you will add value to our team

As part of a tight-knit team, you will be handling tax, assurance & accounting engagements, and projects under the guidance of staff accountants and managers. You will receive a wide range of learning and upskilling opportunities to help you excel. In addition to utilizing your technical competencies, you will be honing exceptional communication skills by working collaboratively with your colleagues and clients.

Your other duties will include:

- Preparing and completing working paper to support the financial statements and tax returns;
- Completing tax schedules as required and drafting the tax returns;
- Gathering all pertinent information for the notes to the financial statements and drafts the notes to relevant sections;
- Identifying issues and questions for the client and discussing them with the Senior Staff Accountant/Manager;
- Discussing with the Manager any matters encountered that may adversely affect the outcome of the engagement on a timely basis;

- Following up on any outstanding issues and assisting the Manager in the completion of the file;
- Building effective working relationships with client contacts and responding effectively to client requests and suggestions related to the engagement;
- Collaboratively sharing knowledge and experience with colleagues and peers.

As the ideal candidate:

- You hold a post-secondary degree or diploma in accounting or business administration.
- Working towards or holding a current CPA designation.
- You have excellent time management skills, including the ability to multitask and produce timely, high-quality results.
- You are highly motivated, energetic, and have a positive attitude.
- You have intermediate to advanced computer skills (MS Office).
- You have a thirst for knowledge, and you are always looking to learn and grow.
- You are a team player who enjoys kicking back after a crazy week to celebrate with your colleagues.

Perks of the gig:

- Mimosa Mondays.
- Tax season treats (regularly).
- Tax recovery week (1st week of May).
- Team excursions.
- Lowkey "Tax on Tap" in the office.
- 4-day work week (July to December).
- Holiday office closures.
- Dog-friendly workspace.
